Max is a civil litigator who has experience overseeing matters throughout various stages of litigation. His practice involves general civil and commercial litigation. Max also has experience handling insurance defense, construction defect, and premises liability matters.

Max is a native Arizonian, being born and raised in Flagstaff before attending Northern Arizona University, where he received his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in finance. Max then went on to attend law school at Arizona State University, where he received numerous academic accolades, and held leadership positions with multiple journals. Additionally, Max was elected by his peers to be a class representative for the law school's student government.

In his free time, Max enjoys spending time with his dog Jude, cooking, crosswords, and all things Chicago Bears football.
