Guy Forte is an attorney who practices in the areas tort defense, products liability, and commercial litigation.

Guy graduated from the James E. Rogers College of Law at the University of Arizona, where he served as the Senior Note Editor for the Arizona Journal of International and Comparative Law, directing the journal's student note program. Guy focused his studies on intellectual property and involved himself in leadership and mentoring opportunities. Guy served both as a second-year teaching assistant and as the Senior Writing Fellow for the University's legal writing program.

Guy is a musician who loves playing guitar and going to see live music of any kind. He enjoys cooking but also loves getting out of the house to try the amazing restaurants around town.
