

Real Estate Litigation

The attorneys at Thorpe Shwer are committed to helping clients achieve their objectives and protect their interests within the real estate industry. Our lawyers have extensive experience representing investors, developers, property owners, tenants, and landlords in a wide variety of real estate matters, including cases involving:

- Claims for adverse possession
- Title disputes
- Eminent domain
- HOA disputes
- Landlord-tenant disputes, including forcible entry and detainer actions
- Litigation of property management agreements
- Disputes arising under purchase and sale agreements

Regardless of the claim or the industry, we have the experience and resources to pursue our clients' real estate interests through pre-litigation negotiations, discovery, and trial.
